Mayor's Minutes –
   o Remembering Mr. Herb Bridges who passed away on September 24.
   o Spoke about the letter to the editor regarding the variances that were addressed at the September meeting o The trees behind the tennis courts need to be removed. The county extension agency came and looked at the trees and said they are dying. Most of the council have looked at the trees and we will be getting bids to have them removed.
   o The Eagle Scout that requested to put a sidewalk in the library garden for his eagle project is underway. Hope to have it completed soon.
   o Integrated Science & Engineering has been asked to give us an estimate for the sewers lines that would connect from the high school to the intersection of Hwy 54/Hwy 154.

There being no further business coming before the Council, the meeting was adjourned.
